Panel Discussion on Growing Orchids

7:30 p.m.

Our July meeting will feature a panel discussion with SCOS Member growers. Included on the panel will be Espie Quinn, Ruben Colemanares, Butch Arciaga, and Jim Hoyle. Bring all the questions you've been wanting to ask about orchids. A plant table will be provided by the society.

President's Message

By now, you probably realize this newsletter was not produced by Dennis. Due to circumstances beyond his control, Dennis has had to resign his position as SCOS Newsletter Editor. Needless to say, we are looking for a new editor.

The cool spring that stretched into early summer was good for orchids in my garden. This month started off with the first of several Cattleya maxima blooming, followed by all the Laelia purpuratas, Maxillaria tenuifolia, a few Masdevallias, and two less-often grown Cattleyas, granulosa and forbesii. The last two have green sepals and petals and (very different) lips with red and purple veining.

At our July 13 Board Meeting, Andy Tao agreed to head the October Auction event, and he will need three leads: Publicity, Vendor Collections, and Auction night coordination. Consider volunteering!
