

South Coast Orchid Society
Summary of April, 1955 meeting as published in Orchid Digest

The South Coast Orchid Society held its Fifth Annual Dinner at the Lafayette Hotel. We were fortunate in having two guest speakers for the gala evening. Mr. George Pring graciously gave a short talk on some of his experiences at the Missouri Botanical Garden. John Chadwick took us on a tour, via Kodachrome slides, to some of the English growers' greenhouses and ended the tour at the L. Sherman Adams Range in Wellesley, Massachusetts. The banquet tables were beautifully decorated with orchid Ming trees and candles decorated with orchids, all made by our corsage class.
