

SOUTH COAST

ORCHID SOCIETY, INC.

LONG BEACH, CALIFORNIA

Meets on the 4th Monday of each Month at Bixby Park Club House, 130 Cherry.

PROGRAM: October 23, 1967.....ORCHIDS IN OTHER PLACES

Mr. Glen Hiatt, Assistant Director of Los Angeles Dept. of Arboreta and Botanic Gardens will be our honored speaker for the evening. He has been associated with Orchids for the past 25 years, during which time he has traveled extensively in Central and South America in search of rare specimens. So with the use of his fine collection of slides and his extensive knowledge, a very enjoyable and instructive evening is promised. He will bring some specimens collected on his travels for our plant table. May we suggest that you bring a friend or friends so that they may also enjoy this fine program.

PLANT PROCUREMENT: Our table for October will be from the range of Fred A. Stewart Inc., and as the name implies we are assured of an outstanding display of the finest.

WHAT YOU HAVE MISSED: A most instructive, novel, and entertaining program. With Leo Holguin as moderator and the Ar macost and Royston 'Family', Irene Holguin, Josie Gonzales, Earl Beck and Marian Martin demonstrating, It was an evening not to be easily forgotten. Many of the secrets' of successful Orchid planning, and growing were divulged to those who would 'lend an ear'. Further thank you's would be superfluous for the Audience expressed this in no uncertain terms.

THANKS: To Armacost and Royston for a magnificent Table boosted along by donations from Hagin's Orchids, Southern Calif. Greenhouses, etc. To So. Calif. Edison Co., represented by Ed. Pennington for the hugh mirror used in the program. To Mrs. Sonia Clark, Mrs. D. Murphy and Mrs. Stockham for helping to satisfy the inner man. To Mr. Eugene Casey and Mr. Vince Scoggins for their 'last minute' Forum comments. To Mrs. Bowman and Mr. Crary for getting our Ribbon Judging off to a really fine start. To Mr. & Mrs. Potter for helping out wherever needed, and last but by no means least to anyone and everyone who have been overlooked.
