

South Coast

Fourth Monday
each month
8 PM

Orchid Society Inc

Wardlow Park
3457 Stanbridge Ave
Long Beach Ca

NOVEMBER 26, 1973 at 8 PM. ANNUAL TRADE FAIR ALWAYS A REALLY APECIAL NIGHT.

This is the night that that all the commercial friends of South Coast are invited to show all the new gadgets, new plants available, and tell of all the new expectations, and hopes for the future. Always informative, and looked forward to by our members, so come with questions and problems for these are the experts and the do have all the answers.

THE PLANT TABLE WILL BE FURNISED BY DONATIONS FROM THE PRIVATE GROWERS AND COMMERCIAL GROWERS, SO THIS SHOULD MAKE IT BOTH INTERESTING AND DESIRABLE. MANY OF OUR MEMBERS ALSO USUALLY ADD TO THE TABLE AND OUR APPRECIATION SHOULD BE EXPRESSED TO ALL THE CONTRIBUTORS.

By refreshment time we will be ready to take a break with something special in the way of cookies furnished by members Mr. & Mrs. Aalff, Dr. & Mrs. Aucreman, Mr. & Mrs. Leo Bance, Mr. & Mrs. P. G. Barnett, Dr. & Mrs. M. Baron, Mr. E. G. Bauman, Dr. Geo. Beckner, Mr. & Mrs. Lee Bentzen, Mr. Otto Blum, Mr. & Mrs W. R. Boehlert. Thanks to our members this is always a welcome and delicious interlude.

October Highlights

Featuring some beautiful slides, Doc Charles gave a most fascinating look at the 'wonderful world of Paphs'. As more and more orchid growers are beginning to treasure the unique and colorful lady slippers, this was a timely glimpse into the background of some of our hybrids. Some of the species are really so lovely it is hard to imagine much use of trying to improve them. I'm giving my vote for this as one of the most interesting talks of this years programs. Also, aren't the coffee breaks enjoyable with the delicious home baked cookies that our members keep surprizing us with? Thanks to them each month is a pleasure.

Novice Class News

It is always a pleasure to hear an orchid grower tell of his guide lines for better plant culture, so the Novice Class had a real treat at the November meeting. Their lovely home, their extensive collection of fine orchids, and their warm hospitality charmed all who found their way to Calabasas. Thanks to the Marshes for a most re-warding visit.

And, for Certificate Time-----off to Armacost & Royston to select something really special to add to your enjoyment. Meeting will be at 10 AM on Dec 2, 1973. See you all there!

Our Members

It is so sad to say goodbye to a friend, and that is how South Coast members feel at the death of Charles Dixon. A sparkle, a quip, an engaging burst of laughter seemed to be there with him and our deep sympathy goes to Earlene in her loss.

News that Thelma Jeanson is feeling better and starting to get around some is heartening. Hope to see her soon at a meeting so best wishes for your continued improvement, Thelma.

Because her lovely home has been sold, Ruth Falk is selling off the remainder of her orchid collection, and remaining supplies at extremely low prices. If you are interested in, please get in touch with her soon and pick up some bargains. Time's getting short .....
