Species Conservation

Dr. Harold Koopowitz

Dr. Koopowitz is Director of the Arboretum at U. C., Irvine, as well as President of the Horticultural Society of Orange County. His subject, "Species Conservation," is one that concerns all of us these days.

PLANT TABLE

The Opportunity Table will be supplied jointly by Harold Koopowitz and Norito Hasegawa. We can expect some very nice things.

SILENT AUCTION

Bidding was very enthusiastic for the spectacular arrangement provided by Orchid Arts (Don Pollard and Bob Lesser) last month, as well as donations from the Powells, Phyllis Cross, Brecht Orchid Gardens and Sarah Ross.

SOMETHING NEW: For every plant put on the auction table, a ticket for a special drawing will be given. Donor should state a minimum bid. Donor may take the plant back home with him if the minimum bid is not met.

REFRESHMENTS

Paul's able assistants in May were Charles Bowman, Andy Yamamoto and Lee Rowland. They really do a great job, don't they?

Those invited to bring cookies in June are: Joan Conceicao, Helen Congleton, Lionel Perry, Phyllis Cross, Clark Day, Jr., Lloyd DeGarmo, Mr. & Mrs. Roy M. Field, the Friend family, George Ghiotto, Jim Gonhue and Emma and Bob Green.

GUESTS

Our guests last month were: Bruce Elliott, Doris Hammond, Ryan Sacklin, Deana and Howard Kenyon. We hope you come again and we invite you to join our Society.

Last Month

We want to thank John Teel for his very informative talk on "Greenhouse Safety". He covered many facets of this subject. Some of the items mentioned as important things to remember were:

1. Be sure all gas lines are checked or wrapped
2. Keep all electrical systems covered or away from moisture
3. Keep pilot lit on heater all year around
4. Make sure heater is well vented and high enough to prevent Saran cloth from burning
5. Make sure all wiring is covered
6. Read directions on spray can before spraying
7. Have no insecticide bottles around that have no label on them.

* * *

The Opportunity Table was supplied by John Teel and supplemented by the generous donations of a Hi-Lo Thermometer from California Greenhouse Control Corp.; two plants from Paul Brecht Orchid Gardens; back bulbs from Robert MacKay and Holzems from Phyllis Cross. Thank you very much.
