Annual Installation Banquet Honors Charles V. Stockham

Our 33rd Annual Banquet will honor Charles Stockham and his lovely wife, Kay. Charles is a past president of the society, having served two years. He has contributed immensely to its success as a Director and, most important, by making available his time and talents in our show participation.

He is a qualified judge of orchids for the Cymbidium Society of America and is a key member in that organization.

Charles and Kay are long-time residents of Long Beach and he served the city for many years as Fire Marshall.

MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS NOW FOR A VERY SPECIAL EVENING.

The Petroleum Club is located at 3636 Linden Avenue in Long Beach. Social Hour begins at 6:30 p.m., with dinner at 7:30 p.m. It is a beautiful location. There is plenty of free parking, the food is outstanding and table decorations by Orchid Arts promise a visual treat.

JANUARY PLANT TABLE is traditionally supplied by us, the members. Please help make the banquet plant table a real winner.

-- Novice News --

Discussion at the January meeting at the home of Phyllis Cross was on a very timely subject - the cost of heating your greenhouse and how it could be reduced. Phyllis has been growing orchids without heat since 1949 so she could speak with authority and her results were there for everyone to see.

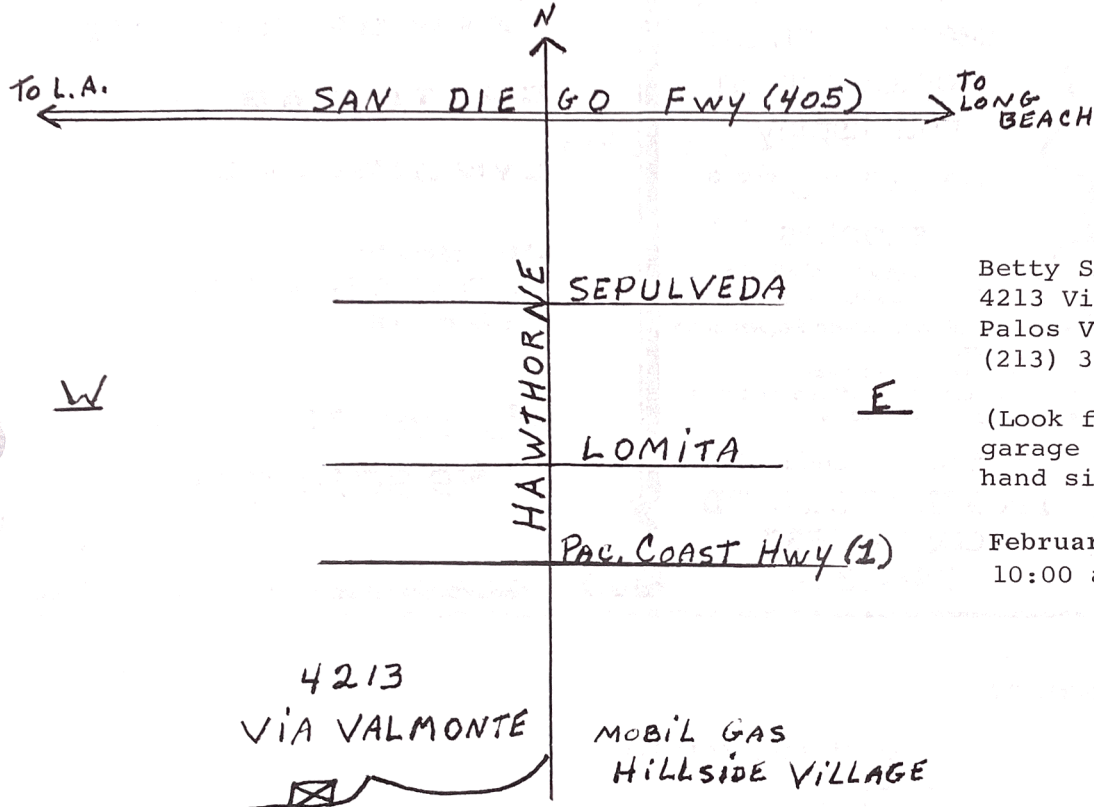

Everyone is looking forward to the February meeting at Betty Snobrich's. She has some beautiful flowers and a lovely setting in which to grow them.

If you've never attended one of these Sunday morning meetings, please come.

LAST MONTH

Thank you very much, Pat Rowland, for that interesting talk on Miniature Cymbidiums. Pat is very knowledgeable and her research is thorough. We are fortunate to have her as one of our members.

Paul Brecht, Marge Peck and Woody added to the Plant Table. Thanks, too, to Walter Belville and Charles Stockham for their assistance at the refreshment table. Our men have done a wonderful job, don't you agree?

Please notice that Rheinfrank & Associates' ad lists their new location in Monrovia. Tell Stan you saw it in our Bulletin.

WE'LL SEE YOU AT THE BANQUET IN JANUARY AND AT THE NEW LOCATION IN FEBRUARY!
