A.O.S. Judging will be held at the Luau. There will not be Ribbon Judging.

Dr. Merle Robboy gave us information last month on a self-created trip to Jamaica for orchid hunting. He told how it was planned and brought about at a very nominal cost.

The Plant Table was supplemented with donations from Armacost & Royston of a Cattleya, a Phalaenopsis and Phal. violacea; Bonnie Scarborough, Cym. California 'Eureka and Dr. Bob Hull a flask of Phal. modesta. The Silent Auction had donations from Ed Curtis, Armacost & Royston, a Hi-Lo thermometer from Charles Bowman and a Vanda in bloom from Paul Brecht which was sold at auction by George Vasquez. Many thanks to all of you.

NEW MEMBERS

Welcome to Harry and Caroline Fackler of La Crescenta, Michael and Sandra Blietz of West Covina. Former members, James Lang and William Jastram have joined with us again, we're glad to have you back.

LUAU

Seating will be outdoors, so entrance will be from Carson Street only. A light wrap is suggested. You will want to buy tickets. Make your bid on the Silent Auction when you have your dessert.

NOVICE NEWS

Apollo Park in Downey was the site for the August meeting and the group will meet there again on the second Sunday in September. Amber Hollingsworth and Edna Reitmeyer will be hostesses.

Try not to miss the September meeting. We regret that there was not adequate publicity in advance to let you know that Norito Hasegawa was going to be the speaker in August and, again, the September speaker will be a surprise -- but Phyllis does manage some great surprises.

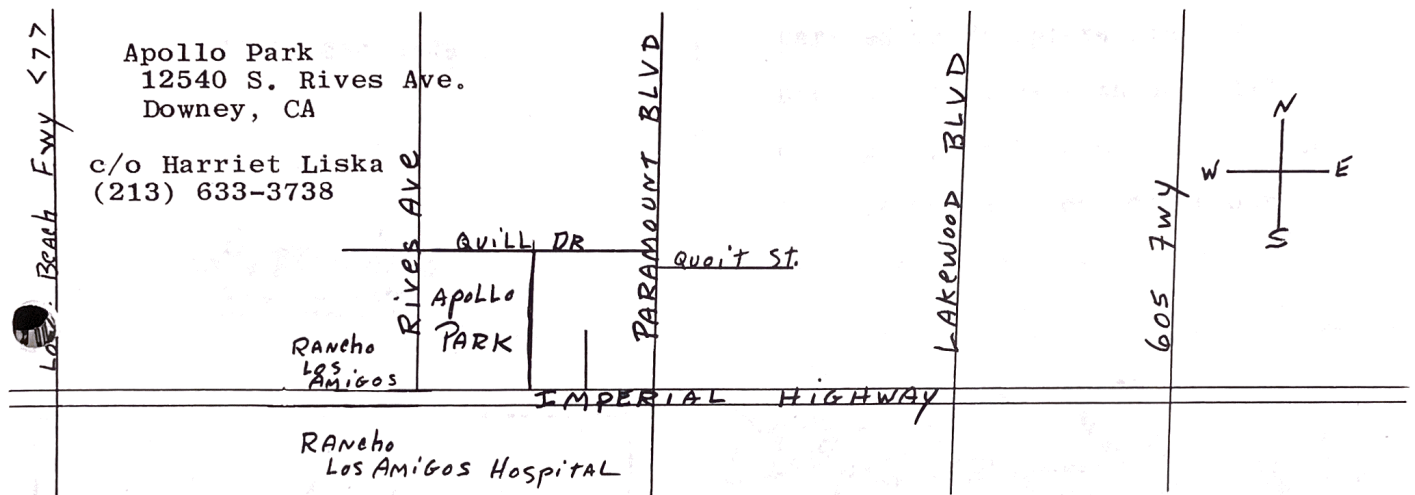

We are told that Norito gave a marvelous talk on Paphiopedilums, along with some hands-on potting demonstrations. Helen Payton and Ethel McCallen were hostesses in August.

Please bring a healthy plant for the drawing. You do not need to bring chairs.

MORE ABOUT THE LUAU

We sincerely thank Roy and Ira Field for their very generous donation which covers the cost of the Luau. Thanks, also, to our talented artist member, Dave Toyoshima, for our cover page and publicity drawings.

Entertainment will be by a professional group, the famous Tiare Dancers, performing exciting songs and dances from Tahiti, Hawaii, Samoa, Fiji, Cook Islands and New Zealand Maoris. Chief Seanoa is Master of Ceremonies and there will be a Samoan Fire Knife Dance.

Our member, Pradit Rungthirakul, will carve the Luau Pig and there will also be turkey. We are asked to bring a dish to serve 12 to go along with the meat or a dessert. Plates, utensils, etc. will be provided.

A very special Plant Table will be furnished by Armacost & Royston and Orchids Royale. There will also be a Silent Auction of select plants held in the kitchen (where desserts will be placed).

It is hoped that each member will provide a plant for the Plant Table (in bloom if at all possible).
