In Memorium

Once again it is our sad task to inform our members of a death within our ranks. Terry and Leo Bance both died in Pasco, Washington in May. They were strong supporters of our society. Terry was treasurer for many years and Leo was librarian as well as an innovative prop designer for us at many a show. They had moved to Echo, Oregon a few years ago.

Jerry Rehfield Speaks at the July 26th Meeting

Our July Meeting will feature Jerry Rehfield, a familiar face in the AOS judging room and the recipient of many Orchid Awards. Jerry is the owner of the Starbeck Farms Orchid nursery in Santa Barbara County. He will be speaking tonight on "Compact Cattelyas", beautiful plants in a great little package. Jerry will also be supplying the plant table and we all know how well he grows those prize winning plants, so don't miss the raffle tonight.

South Coast Orchid Society Wins BIG at Orange County Fair

Your club didn't win just one Blue Ribbon, it WON TWO FIRST PLACE BLUE RIBBONS at the Orange County Fair in Costa Mesa. Hope you get a chance to see it. Reflections On Last Meeting

We had the great pleasure of having Don Herman, the President of the American Orchid Society, as our guest speaker at the June Meeting. He showed us some beautiful slides and related some tales of his recent visit to the International Orchid Congress in Scotland. Thanks Don, for the great presentation and plant raffle table.

Our benefactors of the month included: Mel McManus, Dr. Phil Plocher, Espie Quinn, Paul Brecht, Bonnie Navens and Alda Barents. Thanks for your donations to the Plant Table and/or the Silent Auction. We all appreciate your generosity. Remember that when you donate plants, see Art McCann for your FREE Tickets for a Special Raffle Drawing. You will get 1 Ticket for a non blooming plant and 2 Tickets for a blooming plant.

We had Six Visitors at our June Meeting, four of which became New Members. Our Visitors were: Mel Kunka of Santa Ana and Anne Carpenter of Linwood, PA. Our Visitors who are now Members are: Bill & Dorris Bergstrom of Thousand Oaks, Ron Stange of Long Beach, Paul & Joyce Clark of Norco and Dorothy Smith of Manhattan Beach.
