Paul Bechtel, Head Judge of the American Orchid Society Pacific Southwest Region and owner of Dragonstone Orchids, will be the Master of Ceremonies and the provider of the Plant Table

December Recap

What a great Holiday Pot Luck! A good time was shared by all who attended our holiday party. A big thanks goes to Dr. Jim Miller for suggesting the idea and then for orchestrating the event. Jim arranged for the preparation of the turkey and ham and take care of providing all the extras. Our Members pitched in with some of the best food anywhere.

Roy & Ira Field added excitement to the evening with a donation of $300.00! They arranged to present every attendee with a ticket for six special drawings that saw a $50 bill awarded to each lucky winner. A big thanks goes out to Roy & Ira.

The presentation portion of the evening was provided by Dr. Norito Hasegawa.

Norito provided a very entertaining and informative show on Paphs and a great Plant Table. Thank you, Norito.

Dr. Phil Plocher Comes out on Top.

Our 1995 Ribbon Judging Champion is none other than the New President of the South Coast Orchid Society!

Of course, this is no surprise to the members who view the beautiful Orchids that grace our display tables every month. Our previous champ, Espie Quinn came in second, followed by: Neil Crosswhite, Dick Nerio, A. & L Fleury, B. & C. Navens, Jim Thresh and Clark Day. Congratulations and thanks to everybody. Incidentally, Phil stated that he will submit plants for display, but not judging in '96. That will give the rest of us a chance!
