South Coast Orchid Society Newsletter February 1996

February 26th at 8 PM

Jerry Riehfield will be our guest speaker.
Topic: Odontoglossum Intergeneric Crosses
(Focusing on the Oncidium contributions).
Starbek Farms will supply the Plant Table.

February Program Comments by First Vice President Jimi Fox: Contrary to rumor, Jerry Rehfield never raced at the Indianapolis 500! Neither did he single handily stop a rampaging herd of elephants from destroying a small African village. However, it is a known fact that not many years ago, Jerry Rehfield was a premier Ice Skater! His attributes and gracefulness on the Ice is still talked about in various circles. In our circle, we know Jerry as an accomplished hybridizer for the past 40 years. His focus has been in the area of Cattleya and intergeneric crosses, especially those in the Odontoglossum tribe. Jerry is a well respected Judge in both the AOS and CSA. In fact, he is currently the Santa Barbara Judging Chairmen for the CSA and Vice Chairmen of the AOS here at Long Beach. Jerry's experience and knowledge makes him one of the most sought after speakers. So bring pad and pencil as this master of the intergeneric process brings you up to date in this very exciting field.

President's Comments

Thanks to Tony Glinskas for 3 years of a super performance as President of SCOS.

What a great start of 1996! Paul Bechtel presented the official photographers' slides of all the AOS winners for 1995 and made educational comments about them. Where else can you see 100 beautiful orchids in such a short time? He also made the beautiful plaques for our 1995 special awards. Tony Glinskas presented three special plaque awards to Jane & Paul Brecht, Charlie Bowmand and Roy & Ira Field for outstanding service to SCOS over the years.

We had a very nice "show and Tell" and ribbon judging table. Let's see if we can totally fill it for our February meeting. We also had an additional 15 plants for the raffle table and silent auction which were donated by members. Thanks to all those who contributed.

See you all on February 26th.

Phil Plocher, President
