Program Comments by First Vice President Jimi Fox: Most of us have had, on occasion, the opportunity to take camera in hand and capture a pictorial essay of either a moment, and event or an object that reflected a pleasurable memory. Many of us have taken this magical optical opportunity to capture some of the beauties that we have grown in our Orchid Sanctuary.

Trudi Marsh, has through the years provided us with spectacular photographs of orchids in such publications as: THE ORCHID DIGEST, THE ORCHID BULLETIN, THE ORCHID ADVOCATE, etc. Accompanying her will be that great orchid commentator Red Marsh. So bring your paper, pencils and pens to take copious notes on what will be truly exciting.

Last Month

Our new First Vice President Jimi Fox had his 'baptism by fire' with our planned speaker Jerry Rehfield not being able to make our February meeting. Jimi was not ruffled, he came into action and got a replacement.

We were treated to a presentation by Charles Rowden. Charles is our AOS photographer and is an expert on Chinese Orchids. He showed us some beautiful slides of a recent trip to Hong Kong and how they grow these exotic flowers in that dense world. Thanks to Charles and to Jimi for pulling it through and for the great plant table from Orchids, Ltd..
